Following is a description of this event from the event organizer, Kim Malay:

The proposal for our May 21st, 2022 event is as follows:

We will open at 10:00am and close at 3:00pm. The event will use the lower half of Camp Kane/Langum Park. We may have a couple people camping out the night before.

Our event provides an educational event that shows what camp life was like for the troops at the start of the Civil War. We offer different stations where people can go to talk with and learn about those who supported the troops such as doctors, sutlers, etc.. We also will have a few cannons (which the public loves) and fire them off every hour on the hour. We have been hosting these events for the last 8 years without issue.

We expect approximately 100-150 people throughout the day.

PLEASE NOTE: this special event is being recommended for approval with the caveat that all approvals are contingent upon any governmental sanctions regarding public gatherings, social distancing, etc., pertaining to COVID-19.
